

ORGANIZED.—We are very glad to learn that the new Cavalry Company is meeting with much success, the list of its active members having increased to over 70, with every prospect of soon numbering 100. The company is now fully organized, and the following list of its officers for the year 1862 will show that it embraces some of our most active and efficient citizens :

Charles W. Vincent, Captain.

Charles H. Judd, Senior Lieutenant ; M. R. Harvey, First Lieutenant ; William Duncan, Second Lieutenant ; William H. Dimond, Third Lieutenant.

Dr. G. P. Judd, Surgeon with rank of Lieutenant ; Dr. H. Stangenwald, Assistant Surgeon.

Rev. Eli Corwin, Chaplain.

Paul F. Manini, Quartermaster with rank of Lieutenant ; Henry Cornwell, Assistant Quartermaster.

Robert E. Wakeman, Orderly Sergeant ; William Bennett, Second Sergeant ; John N. Gilman, Third Sergeant ; Robert Self, Fourth Sergeant.

William S. Wood, First Corporal ; Jerome Feary, Second Corporal ; James L. Lewis, Third Corporal ; H. J. Nolte, Fourth Corporal.

William W. Hall, First Cornet ; Edward H. Boyd, Second Cornet.

Wm. E. Herrick, First Bugler ; Jacob Holck, Second Bugler.

H. G. Crabb, Secretary ; B. F. Durham, Assistant Secretary.

William H. Dimond, Treasurer.

The Garibaldi costume has been adopted by the company as its uniform, which consists of blue pants, red shirt, black neck tie, belt, and Kossuth hat. This style of dress has several advantages, being inexpensive, (costing not over ten dollars a suit,) and admirably adapted to our climate. The sabres will be furnished by the War Department, and we wish we could announce the whole cost of outfit as defrayed from the appropriation for the military. The company will muster on its first public drill on Saturday afternoon, at 4 o'clock.
